What is Elder Financial Abuse?

Elder financial abuse occurs when someone preys on a senior citizen and cheats them out of money or property. This person can be a friend, family member or a stranger. Watch for signs of the abuse and report anything suspicious to the authorities.

Possible signs may include, but are not limited to:

- Bank accounts show unusual activity.
- Belongings are missing.
- Will is suddenly changed.
- Isolation from friends and family.
- Fear of speaking up for themselves
- Changes in personality or behavior
- Purchasing items that the senior cannot use
- Financial situation suddenly changes
- Senior is receiving care well below the level he or she can afford.
